

RE: 2019 ATP CHALLENGER TOUR — SUMMARY OF CHANGES

Please pay attention to the following important changes to the ATP Challenger Tour, effective 1st January 2019.

1. ATP Challenger Tour Categories / Points / Prize Money

The ATP Challenger Tour events will be re-named according to points awarded to the winner of the event. There will continue to be five categories of events.

- ATP Challenger 125
- ATP Challenger 110
- ATP Challenger 100
- ATP Challenger 90
- ATP Challenger 80

For the points and prize money breakdown per round, please see Exhibit A.

2. Tournament Week & Draw Format

All Challenger events will be played over seven (7) days, starting Monday and finishing on Sunday, with the following format:

- Main Draw: 48 players
- Doubles: 16 teams (no Qualifying event)
- Singles Qualifying event with 4 players only

	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun
MD Singles	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
Q Singles	✓
MD Doubles		✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓

3. Hospitality

All ATP Challenger Tour events must provide Hospitality.

- Singles players: starting Saturday through the night of their last match with no minimum number of nights
- Doubles players: starting Sunday through the night of their last match with no minimum number of nights
- Qualifiers: Only players who qualify for the main draw receive hospitality (backdated to Saturday)

- Players who do not book by the two-week deadline will not have hospitality guaranteed.

4. Special Schedule

ATP Challenger Tour events held in the week prior to a Grand Slam event in the same region may apply for a Sunday to Saturday schedule.

5. Alternative Format Based on Tournament Request

Tournaments may apply to hold at 56 Draw Singles Event with the following format

- Main Draw: 56 players
- Doubles: 16 teams (no Qualifying event).
- Qualifying: 4 players

ATP approval will be based upon but not limited to, these factors:

- Calendar position
- Adequacy of facility
- Match Schedule Plan
- Location
- Any other factor deemed relevant by ATP

Total financial commitment (prize money and fee) for 56 draw tournaments will be the same as for a 48 draw.
